

Working with students who are Blind or Visually Impaired

DO

provide visual access to information foster an ideal listening environment expect the student to use the assistive technology devices provide optimal seating arrangement use clear language when speaking

REMEMBER TO provide copies of notes and handouts in the student's preferred format provide descriptions provide electronic copies of information to the student ensure there is visual access to peers, teachers and instructional information being presented